

BEST OF NY

NYC's 6 Best Bars For The NFL Season

Football is back. Celebrate each touch down – or drown your sorrows after every butt fumble – at these city bars and restaurants hosting NFL viewing parties, drink specials and an exciting atmosphere for pigskin fanatics.

Brother Jimmy's BBQ

1485 2nd Ave,
New York, NY
212-288-0999
www.brotherjimmys.com/

(credit: Brother Jimmy's)

Known as a post-grad hangout for former frat brothers and college sports fans, it's no surprise Brother Jimmy's BBQ is trying their hardest to make their venue the ultimate football destination.

All five of their city locations will have the NFL Network will playing on 40+ HDTVs. We've shared our love for their unlimited specials before, so on Sundays make sure to pig out at the All-You-Can-Eat Rib Fest with two sides, cornbread and your choice of Bud or Bud Light Draft for $27.95. On Mondays take advantage of All-You-Can-Eat Wings and Rib Tips with Bud or Bud Light Draft for $19.95. There will also be College Football game day specials on Saturdays as well with specific alumni groups associated with each location to cheer alongside.